PARTENARIATI SCOLASTICI EUROPEI

The purpose of the project was to make the students aware of the human rights in general, and especially, of the women's rights as a component of the democracy values. The project contributes to the awareness concerning the equality in rights of men-women, through a diachronically knowledge of the process of woman's emancipation and through interactive activities, whose purpose is the direct involvement of the students in study cases which should make them think about positive solutions to the problems at stake. The project activities integrated into the curriculum (In fields such as literature, music, sports, history, biology, geography, foreign languages), has as a target to make them aware of gender equality and the necessity of personal fulfillment. All the activities address to students of both gender, because education on chances equality concerns not only the girls or only boys, but all of them. The project activities, involve getting information about and research of the Romanian and foreign space (via internet or other sources), while focusing on the stimulation of the students' interest to learn about the differences between past and present. They will understand also the importance of the implementation of women's rights in a democratic society, which respects the European vision of chances equality. The students will be able to analyze the dynamic of the society where they live and they will soon be involved.

ACTCITY

Erasmus+ Project «Actcity» 2015-2017

Partecipative culture

A way to be a European active citizen

Project's summary

The project Actcity has developed during the years 2015-17 and its aim was to promote an active and responsible behavior among the students at an educational and social level, creating a dynamic learning field, for a modernized approach to the concept of active citizenship.

Thanks to the project the students have improved their knowledge on different sectors of active citizenship and their level of acquisition of the key-competences of citizenship, increasing the idea of a participative culture and a creative and proactive attitude.

Our final objective was to build a framework for a curriculum of citizenship to be implemented in the school activities with a projection to the future.

THE NIGHT OF SAN JUAN

The "Noche de San Juan" The Night of Saint John is an ancient feast which celebrates the arrival of summer in the northern hemisphere. Bonfires and dances around flames are organized throughout the country. It seems that the practice was to give more strength to the sun that has increasingly weak during winter.

THE NIGHT OF SAN JUAN

Nowadays this feast is celebrated both in Spain and in many places in Europe as in Norway, Denmark, Switzerland, Finland and in the United Kingdom. In Spain the celebration occurs in the night between June 23rd and 24th of June, which corresponds to the summer solstice. The night of June 23rd is the longest of the year, which corresponds to the summer solstice.

SAN JORDI OR SAINT GEORGE'S DAY

San Jordi's Day is celebrated in Catalonia, Spain, on April 23rd. It is a day of joy and celebration, marked by the exchange of books and roses. The day is named after the patron saint of Catalonia, Saint George, who is believed to have slain a dragon. The day is also the date of the birth of William Shakespeare and the death of Joan of Arc.

THE NATIONAL FEAST OF CATALUNYA

Important celebrations are usually held mainly in the Gothic area of Barcelona. The city centre, the palaces of the town and the Generalitat or Government of Catalonia, become an open stage. Most balconies are decorated with the flags of Catalonia. The city stages free concerts, the Els Castells (Human Towers), dance performances (the Sardana, the national dance) along the main streets of the towns.

Desk help students' simulation at school

L'Istituto Ugo Mursia parteciperà ad nuovo partenariato strategico nell'ambito del Programma Europeo Erasmus+ KA2 dal titolo "We all Stand together" con Grecia, Portogallo, Turchia, Polonia e Norvegia.

L'obiettivo del progetto è promuovere un modello innovativo nella pratica didattica per incrementare la cittadinanza attiva, l'inclusione e l'integrazione, attraverso i valori della tolleranza, dell'equità, dell'impegno civico e responsabile.

Il primo incontro del progetto si svolgerà nel mese di dicembre a Xanthi in Grecia presso la scuola coordinatrice "Zo Epaggetmatiko Lykeio Xanthis".

Nell'ambito delle attività il progetto promuove la collaborazione con le istituzioni locali e la società civile per diffondere i valori della cittadinanza attiva nel contesto scolastico e nella vita sociale.

LONG LIVE CULTURAL DIVERSITY

ERASMUS + KA₂

The Ugo Mursia institute will participate at the new European Erasmus + KA2 Program entitled "LONG LIVE CULTURAL DIVERSITY" with Croatia, Portugal, Greece and Macedonia. The coordinating school is Turkey. The objectives of the project are:

- Implementing the students' awareness of the cultural and historical heritage of their country and of the partner countries in various areas of relevance: culture, history, legends, myths, music, art, literature, folk dances, customs and traditions, through comparison and creative activities, from a multilingual and multicultural point of view.
- Promoting and enhancing lifelong education.
- Enhancing knowledge of the foreign language (English) and developing linguistic and digital skills.
- Enhancing active citizenship and the sense of belonging to Europe.
- Making the themes and products created within the project visible, both within the institute and in the local context, through the dissemination on the E-twinning platform, facebook and the creation of a website.

It is an exciting experience through which the participating guys, in addition to creating new friendships, will increase their cultural baggage. Therefore, this project embodies culture and fun in an enveloping embrace, which catapults you into a daydream!

Thanks for watching
